

Internship Openings

The Youth Chorus of Kansas City is seeking two music education interns for the 2021-2022 season. Successful candidates can demonstrate a willingness to plug into the YCKC community, exhibit positive and proactive communication, and have a genuine interest in building experience working hands-on with grades 3-12 singers in an educational and rehearsal settings. A small stipend is paid at the end of each semester.

Supervised by: Artistic Director, Ryan Main

Purpose of Position: To provide support for directors and students, direct choirs

Time Commitment: 2.5 hours per week plus events as scheduled

YCKC Mission: To teach, to inspire, and to empower young singers to be life-long music makers who seek excellence in everything they do.

Requirements:

- Professional communication in person and written communication
- Availability for Monday evening rehearsals and performances, general availability for dates outlined here
- Exhibit willingness to plug into the YCKC community

Responsibilities:

- Communicate with staff about scheduling conflicts as they arise
- Lead sectionals as needed
- Assist in practice track recordings as needed
- Respond to e-mail or phone communications in a timely fashion
- Meet as needed with staff
- Provide other assistance as requested and agreed upon

E-mail CV or resume and statement of interest to ryan@youthchoruskc.org, position open until filled